Subject: Notice of File Closure and Release of Reclamation Surety, Interpace Holdings, LLC,
Fox Clay, S/049/0077, Utah County, Utah

Dear Mr. Rhine:

The Division of Oil, Gas and Mining will close and retire the file for the Notice of Intention to Commence Small Mining Operations (Notice) for the Fox Clay mine, file number S/049/0077, located in Utah County, Utah. By letter dated August 22, 2012, the Division authorized Southwest Marine and General Insurance Company of Louisville, Kentucky, to release the surety bond being held for this project (copy attached). With that letter, the Division returned the original surety document to them. We are returning your original reclamation contract to you for your records or disposal.

You are hereby released by the Division from reclamation responsibilities at this site. If you wish to conduct any future mining or exploration related activity in this area, you will need to submit a new Notice of Intention to the Division and provide reclamation surety prior to creating any disturbance.

The Division originally sent a letter regarding this release request to the following address:

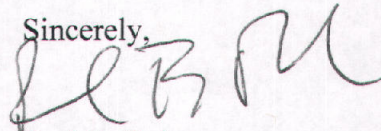

Interpace Holdings LLC
736 West Harrisville Road
Ogden, Utah 84404

This letter was returned by the Post Office with a sticker showing the address above. If this address change is correct, the Division needs to receive updated information for Interpace's various Notices. Please submit these updates no later than July 29, 2013.
